PHILIPPE NABONNAND

Philippe Nabonnand is a historian of mathematics (19th-20th century). His fields of interest are the work and correspondence of Henri Poincaré, the history of geometry in the 19th and 20th centuries, and mathematical journals. He is a professor of history of science at the University of Lorraine and a member of the Archives Henri Poincaré-Philosophie et Recherches sur les Sciences et les Techniques (UMR 7117).

SPM
SOCIEDADE PORTUGUESA DE MATEMÁTICA
SEMINÁRIO NACIONAL DE HISTÓRIA DA MATEMÁTICA

Instituto de Gouveia
Escola Profissional de Gouveia

MUNICÍPIO DE GOUVEIA